

Doris Watson Parker

April 21, 1943 - December 11, 2022

On December 11th at 7:33am, Doris Watson Parker was called home into the arms of the Lord. God put His arms around her and lifted her to rest. Her love and legacy of service with over 50 years in public education as an outstanding teacher and school administrator will long impact her family and community. Mrs. Parker continued her life of service serving in many roles. She was a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc (Delta Iota Omega chapter), served as one of the 5 founding members of the Debuaires Social and Civic Club, served in an administrative capacity at the Jacqueline Harris Preparatory Academy for many years post retirement, and was instrumental in the founding of the St. James Missionary Baptist Church Daycare.

She is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 53 years, Charles D. Parker, and leaves three daughters to cherish her memory; Jacquita Walker (Frederick), Sharon Wilson (John), Mona Parker, and (like a daughter) Diana Johnson; nephews Ronald Harris, Robert Parker, Bahiy Watson; nieces, Debra Gulley, Tasha Cleveland, Sabrina Johnson; grandchildren, Janell Henderson, Jarred Henderson (Niah), Jaleah Knight (Jarrod), Sydney Wilson, Kendall Wilson, Aubrey Wilson, Dylan Jacobs, and five great-grandchildren, Jaylenn English, siblings Jaxon and Jillion Henderson, siblings James and Jonathon Knight, special "sister-cousin", Ida Pearl Deese, dearest cousin, Norman Watson, God-daughters, Tiara Johnson and Stephanie Philpot, and a host of other beloved cousins and friends.

Viewing will be Sunday, December 18th at The Catavant, 521 Cervantes St., 1:00pm-7:00pm. The celebration of life service will be held Monday, December 19th, 2:00pm at St. James Missionary Baptist Church, 219 E. Johnson Ave. Interment will follow at the New Hope Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, 5639 N. Highway 95A, Molino, FL.
