“ Our sympathy to you Tim and Stacy and your families in the death of your mom, Dot. I served as Pastor of Oakland City Baptist church when Dot and Everette were faithful members and you were young boys. Dot's musical ability on the organ led us in worship each Sunday and Everette was a deacon and outstanding leader. Jerry and I have positive memories of their friendship, support and faithfulness. May you be comforted as you remember a life well lived in the service of God. Blessings!

“ To Dot's family:

We are thinking of you and praying for you today in the loss of Dot. She was a sweet and dear friend to our family for many years. In fact, Dot and Everette escorted my mom and dad to elope in 1952. Dot was always supportive and kind. She was a very strong Christian lady with much kindness to share. I know she will be missed by each of you. May God bless you in this loss and comfort you with His love.

Sincerely,

Darryl and Marsha Segraves, Hazel Norris, David Norris and Darren Norris and Family

We were neighbors in East Point back in the Day and I remember Dot as a very warm and friendly neighbor. I am sorry for the family's loss. May cherished memories of her keep her close to you in the days ahead.
