“ Aunt Dot, I can remember all of the good memories that you shared with me. Going to the live Christmas Tree and watching you. Thank you for being my Aunt and I love you and will miss you.

“ What a great lady and a wonderful life to celebrate. Mrs. Williams reared three solid citizens in Jonesboro during the 40s and 50s. John Q. is my classmate and lifelong friend. In addition to being a good mother, she helped feed thousands of children while working with the food service of the Clayton County School System. Rest in peace Mrs. Williams. You were special.
