“ Sister Stewart, as she was so affectionately known to me and my mother, was an amazing lady, loving mother, caring friend and a true Christian. I met sister Stewart over 30 years ago at Louisa Church of Christ in New Orleans, La. She set an example to me and other Christians how to live a Christian life on this earth.

I will always remember how she was an inspiration in getting my mother to obey the Gospel of Christ. When my mother passed away, she quoted scriptures from the bible and said some kind and loving words to get me through my devastating loss She was eager to help others with a cheerful and loving heart.

Ephesians 1:3-14 tells us that God is the source of all spiritual blessings. I was truly blessed that God sent sister Stewart in me and my mother's life. God bless sister Stewart, her children, and the Stewart family.
