“ My heartfelt sympathies go to the family of Doug Ellis. He was a senior at GCA when I came as a junior in the Fall of 1975. I have fond memories of the friendship he extended to me, especially being a new student to the school along with my first experience to dorm life. Those times can be tough on a kid, but I was received with open arms. I'll never forget the great dorm guitar jams with Doug, among the dozen other guitar players, and trying to keep Randy Haugen's bass soft enough that we wouldn't get in trouble with the dean. :) Anyway, I extend my love to your family, and may God send you comfort for Doug's untimely passing.

*All the best,

“ Still don't believe it...I was just reading all the comments/condolences from people and tearing up. We really miss you, Doug. You should be here. My babies miss their granddads. I miss your silly jokes and sarcasm. We love you. Keep Daddy company until we can all be together again.

“ Dearest Jeanee, my heart just aches for you. I have missed you and Doug so much. It was such an honor to assist you both with your baptism. You and Doug have been such a blessing to me and to so many people's lives you have touched. I pray you find peace and comfort in God's love and know that you will see Doug again when Jesus comes to take us home. Love and prayers. Brenda Lund, Chapel Haven Church, Northglenn, CO

“Jeanee and family, may peace find you and all those who mourn Doug's passing. May his memory comfort you and provide healing. In the days, weeks and months ahead may you feel his presence and his love. When Kent passed the Rabbi read the measure of a man which I have copied below. Listen and hear of the memories of Doug. I hope that they bring you comfort as you see him through the eyes of others. Doug's story does not end you will continue to write his story in the stories that you tell, tell them often. May the lord bless you and keep you all the days of your lives. You are in my prayers as is Doug.

THE MEASURE OF A MAN

*Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?*

*These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.*

*Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
And - How did he play his God-given part?*

*Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?*

*Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
But - Had he befriended those really in need?*

*Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
But - How many were sorry when he passed away?*

*These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.*

“ I shall always remember the kindness and friendship of a man who knew me for two years as his pastor. I shall always remember he and Jeannee together with me at their baptism a couple of years ago at Chapel Haven in Denver. Sleep well friend. Laura and I will see you at the resurrection. Jeannee, hang on to the Blessed Hope. You are loved by so many but especially, Jesus Christ.
