“ Robert and Lugenia Anthony (Cousin) Our heart-felt sympathy goes out to Delores' daughters, grandchildren, sisters, brothers and other family members. Loosing a loved one in death is difficult. However, it is comforting to know that Jehovah God promises to resurrect our dead loved ones, in the near future, on a beautiful paradise earth, which the faithful man Job mentioned as his hope, at Job 14:13-15; (Psalm 37:29). We look forward to seeing and enjoying Delores' company once again at that time.

The Braithwaite family of Leonard, Tortola, extends heartfelt condolences to the daughters, brothers, sisters, and extended family and friends of Dulcina Deloris Williams. We fondly remember Deloris as she accompanied her caretaker and Godmother, the late Octavia Williams as they made their trip home to Diamond after work. It always included a stop by the home of friend, my mother, the late Daisy Braithwaite. Deloris, always approachable, would sit quietly reading a book, or working on her homework. She was often admired for her patience and good behavior. Her earthly journey has ended. She will be missed by all those whose lives she has touched. May God comfort and strengthen each of you as you grieve the loss of you beloved Dulcina Deloris. May her soul Rest In Peace.
