

Edna L. Harris

May 3, 1933 - November 7, 2006

In the company of family and friends, Mrs. Edna L. Harris passed away peacefully on November 7, 2006. Raised in Cedartown, Georgia, Mrs. Harris was the ninth of ten children born to Steven Harrison and Edna Cauthen Lane. Following graduation from Cedartown High School in 1951, Mrs. Harris along with her sister, Kathryn Peek, moved to Atlanta, Georgia where she worked for the Ford Motor Company. While attending the former Capitol View Baptist Church, she met the love of her life, Clifford J. ?Jerry? Harris and they were wed in 1957. Following the tragic death of her husband in 1973, Mrs. Harris totally dedicated her energies to nurturing the couple?s two children, Eydie and Brad ? a love and devotion that would endure throughout the remainder of her life.

With her children building their own lives, Mrs. Harris began a new career as an ?aide de camp? with the Georgia General Assembly, retiring from there in 2001. Prior to her retirement, Mrs. Harris moved to Palmetto, Georgia where her two favorite preoccupations were raising cattle and tending to her beautiful rose garden. While in Palmetto, Mrs. Harris was an active member of Sardis Baptist Church.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Eydie and Ron Barber, New Orleans, LA; son, Brad Harris, Atlanta; brother Hoyt Randall Lane, Stockbridge; granddaughter, Britnee Barber, New Orleans, LA. Funeral Services will be held Saturday, November 11, 2006 at 11 AM at Sardis Baptist Church. Reverend David Hammond will officiate the service. Interment will follow at Westview Cemetery. The family will receive friends Friday evening from 6 PM to 9 PM at Parrott Funeral Home, Fairburn. 770-964-4800.

Mrs. Harris fought a long battle with lung disease. Those wishing to give a gift in lieu of flowers should do so to the American Lung Association in her honor. She will be deeply missed by all those whom she touched throughout her life.
