Carolyn, I am so sorry to hear of Ed's passing, he was a great Christian gentleman, we had many good trips and memories with him, I am sorry I can't come to the service, as I am. On a walker and it would be hard getting around in the cemetery, I will keep you in my prayers!

Dear Caroline and family, thinking of you with warm memories of you and of Ed at our home church of Union Christian. Can still hear Ed singing as you played the piano. Out of all the Christmas's one I remember especially at the Clubhouse, next to Central School, where someone handed Ed a present from under the tree. I think it was Ruby. It was a hoola hoop. I can hear Ed's laughter even now, as he slipped it over his shoulders and began to swivel around trying to keep the hoop on. He brought us all to laughter and tears. What a sport he always was. A good Christian man that was loved by all. His memory will live on within you and the family, and with all of us that had the honor of knowing Ed.

*Respectfully,
Jayne Bennett*

Dear Carolyn

It is with sadness to read of Ed's passing. Though it has been years since our first memories of you two at Union Christian Church. You played the piano and Ed lead the singing. We were ACC students and worked with the youth on Sundays. We also got married at the church there. How time marches on! We are left with great memories, however.

May our Lord wrap you and your family in His loving arms and give you peace and comfort that only He can give.

All because of Christ...
