“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I too know the sting of death. The memories of good times will carry you thru these sad days. I hope that you can surround yourself with family and those who can build you up with the comfort you need. There is the best support found in God's word. Please read Isaiah 25:8. Death will soon be a thing of the past and there will be no more tears. Take care of yourself and let the scriptures fill you with hope and promise.

“ Ed never forgot to find me in the congregation and give a big hug. He paid attention to the details of our family (what a memory) and shared his positive attitude about life. On one UMW overnight outing, Helen spoke of always matching her earrings to her night wear, 'because it showed how much you cared for your spouse.' How dear Ed was to her and to all of us.
