“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Eleanor's family at this sad time. We met Eleanor and Ed through our best friends, Danny and Jane McCravy. Eleanor and her family came to birthday celebrations and big Thanksgiving dinners at Danny's. We always looked forward to Eleanor's fresh baked bread! She and Ed also regaled us from time to time with family stories and the times they lived overseas. Her embroidery work was stunning. She was an elegant, southern lady with sound opinions (as with most southern ladies). She will be missed, yet remembered. Sheila & Steve Wilson

“ I met the Zetterower's, Eleanor & Edsel in the 70's after moving from Cliftondale to Palmetto. I knew her daughter, Corrie, after she & my son Tony Thompson decided they REALLY cared for each other at Palmetto High School. Corrie spent much time here and I know my son, Tony, spent much time visiting with them at their home. I remember the night they went to the Prom..still have the picture of them. Yes, Corrie, "my bread drawer is still in the same place." You are welcome here any time...I love you. I am sorry for the loss of your Mom.
