“ Cecily, Jeffrey and Patti: For over 40 years, you've shared your precious mother with an "adopted sister," and her impact on our lives has been immeasurable. Thank you. Your care of this "Steel Magnolia" has far exceeded what most families are able to accomplish and she spoke so often - and in glowing terms - of each of you and your devotion. Patti's dedication cannot be extolled enough. A loyal best friend, a wonderful wife and mother, a woman with the voice of a nightingale, a "cool" business associate, loving sister, amazing seamstress and quilter, "proxy" grandmother to my children, and a woman with a wry sense of humor....our Elizabeth (or "B'beth, as my daughter, Kate, called her) filled so many shoes and positions and never allowed anyone to see her squirm. I love you all and pray that the Lord she loved will comfort you as the huge void she filled is filled by Him.
