“ I love my Aunt Frances more than words can say. She was a wonderful loving person. She loved her family so much. I always felt as though I could trust her with my life. She was a true confidant. How could one person be so sweet and mean as a snake at the same time. What a great spirit she had. I will miss my talks with her and her wonderful laugh. I have heard those laughs so many time over the years. Music to my ears as I think about it. I love her so much and will miss her. I know she is in a better place and singing to Jesus with Mama (Lois) and Louise now.

Love, Hugs and Kisses to Cheryl, Linda, Reid and Kim. Also to all of her grandchildren and great grandchildren. I will be thinking about you all as you go through this trying time.

With Love, Kay Turner Hendrick and Scott Hendrick
