

Eric Flood

July 1, 1960 - December 25, 2017

Eric Bennett Flood, 57, of Newnan passed away December 25, 2017.

Mr. Flood is survived by his daughters Ramsey Flood and Haley Flood, both of Atlanta; mother Manette Copeland, brother Stephen Flood, and sister Tracy Hoeltke (and niece Lauren), all of Hall County; and many cousins in Oklahoma.

Mr. Flood was born July 1, 1960 in Atlanta GA. Except for college and brief periods for work, from the age of 2 he lived his entire life in Coweta County. In his youth he played in the band and showed cattle in 4-H club. He was employed by Eastern Air Lines before their demise. Later, he was a wholesale distributor for Atlanta newspapers. He was an avid golfer and snow skier, skiing in several states as well as abroad. He was a fan of sports car racing, attending many races at Road Atlanta. He campaigned his old BMW to an SCCA division class championship in autocross (slalom).

Later in life, his primary focus was on raising his daughters and coaching their softball teams. He liked to watch racing, golf, and skiing; followed by baseball, football, and hockey. He also enjoyed reading and was excited about becoming a grandfather.

Mr. Flood was preceded in death by his sister Donna Flood and his father

Clifford Bennett Flood.

“ I am sorry I didn't hear of Eric's passing until the day after his funeral. Eric and Haley meant a lot to me and I will never forget our time together as the "Chill".

Haley, please know that you guys are in our prayers and if I can help with anything, please let me know.

Pastor Jimmy Orr is my pastor and he told me about Eric's service when I saw him Sunday.

You guys were a part of the best memories I have from coaching my girls. I wish I could have talked to him more and it was great to see him a couple of times recently.

Thanks for some awesome years together!
