Frank is one of the finest men I have known. He was always positive and had nothing bad to say about anyone. He always made me feel a part of the family since I made friends with Jennifer in the 8th grade. I will miss him greatly. He was a great example to me in his faith and family.

“ Every Thanksgiving Frank always welcomed me with open arms at my Granny Jackson's. Enjoyed him so much. Last time I saw him at Aunt Billie's funeral he was the very same. His smile never changed. You were loved Frank.
