“ I wish I could have known your mother longer and better. I truly cherish the small chats we shared in that small space in time. She shared a little of her life with me and I am grateful for it. I never know quite what to say in times like this, so I will borrow these words.

"Your Mother is always with you. She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street. She's the smell of certain foods you remember, flowers you pick, the fragrance of life itself. She's the cool hand on your brow when you are not feeling well. She's your breath in the air on a cold winter's day. She is the sound of the rain that lulls you to sleep, the colors of a rainbow, she is Christmas morning. Your mother lives inside your laughter. She is the place you came from, your first home and she is the map you follow with every step you take. She's your first love, your first friend, even your first enemy, but nothing on earth can separate you, not time, not space, not even death." Unknown

God grant you peace and comfort and know He will keep His promise, this is only an until we meet again."
