Evelyn was an amazing lady and a true Southern Belle. She and James were always so much fun to be with. I had the privilege of singing with her in the choir at SW Christian, for a number of years. She's now singing in that Heavenly Choir❤️

“ We are so sorry to hear of Evelyn’s passing. Our last visit with her was a few weeks before James passed at the home of the Storey’s. We always stopped there for a couple of days on our way to Florida. We played poker for hours. That last time she was the big winner. I just ran across a picture of her last month of her holding up the money she won and smiling big. We were so lucky to meet her and James more than 35 years ago in New Smyrna Beach. Our deepest sympathy.
