“ I am deeply saddened to hear about your loss. We all look forward to a time when death, and mourning are things of the past. God promises to not only do away with those things, but also bring our loved ones back to life. We all await such wonderful promises.- Revelation 21:3,4; Acts 24:15

“ Pat, my sympathies go out to you and to Leigh for the loss of your Mother and Grandmother. You and I have been fortunate to have kept our Mothers for a long time. Blessings, Susan

“ Pat,

I don't know if you remember me or not. You lived next to my grandmother Lucy Duncan and we used to play together. Our mothers went through school together and were good friends, I know you are saddened at your mother's passing. She lived a very long life but we are just never ready to see them go. Please accept my condolences and may God bring you comfort.
