

Evelyn Marie Bettis Williams

September 25, 1933 - November 29, 2025

Evelyn Marie Bettis Williams, also known as Mama. Mommo, Ma, Aunt Evelyn, sister and friend, was welcomed into heaven on November 29, 2025. “Our mama loved the Lord, laughter, and family. Her home was always filled with the scent of homemade cinnamon rolls, the sounds of children playing, and the feeling of her warmth and joy.”

As the seventh of twelve children, she never wanted to be the center of attention but lived her life quietly doing good. Her daughters, Carol Henderson, Martha Hynson (Paul), and Beverly Dillard (Tim) will always remember a happy childhood that included bedtime Bible stories and paper dolls cut from the pages of the Sears Roebuck catalog. Her grandchildren, Jennifer Kilpatrick (David), Jaynee Edgeworth, Mary Beth Laflin (Matt), Seth Hynson, Deborah Grindle, Alyssa Owens, Ally Mobley (Brett), and Madison Dillard will cherish memories of living their best life at Mommo’s house where they never heard the word no. Her legacy of love continues through nineteen great-grandchildren. She will be missed by sisters, nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Surrounded by her loved ones who preceded her in death, husband, Bob Williams, parents, Ralph and Minnie Bettis, sisters, brothers, and one precious great-granddaughter, she is now hearing the words, “Well done, good and faithful servant.” While she waits for us in heaven, a part of her lives on in each of us through the love and joy she shared.

Services will be held on Thursday, December 4, 2025 at 11 o’clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home. Interment will follow at Sherwood Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends Wednesday evening from 4:00 until 7:00 p.m. at Parrott Funeral Home and Crematory.

Donations may be made to Breakthrough T1D, formerly known as the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation through their website.

“ Carol, I remember your sweet mother and your daddy. I'm so sorry to hear of your mama's passing. I remember her so well. Your daddy was our softball coach. Seeing the pictures brought back so many fond memories of your family in Clifftondale. What a wonderful tribute for your mother with all her family there. God Bless. Lori Eskew Winkler

“ Mama was kind to everyone who knew her. Much like her own mother, she made sure that if you came to her house, there would be something to eat, and you would go home with something: ansack, a newspaper clipping, or a book she thought you might like to read. For me, it was often postage stamps. She kept me supplied with them and seemed to always know when my supply was dwindling. She would always get an "extra roll" at the post office. She said it was because she knew I was too busy to be stopping by there to buy stamps. I haven't bought stamps in a lot of years! Thank you, mama for the stamps and the love behind them. Carol
