“ Evelyn was my sister-in-law. I am not a southern girl by any stretch of the imagination, but she accepted me into her family without reservations. We spend many a night at her home while passing through Atlanta and felt always welcome. I remember well her amazing Brunswick stew permeating her home as soon as we entered. I have tried it many times, but it has never come close to hers. Evelyn was a smart, no nonsense beautiful woman and I loved her very much.
