“ As my wife and I were walking the neighborhood some months ago it was truly an unexpected blessing to meet Preston. I could immediately tell he was a man of God and it was a joy to have him come to our home several times to meet with a few of the men from the neighborhood for an impromptu Bible study. We were so saddened to learn of his sudden passing, but it is a comfort to know he is now with the Lord. We send our most sincere condolences to you, Elaine, and to your family.

“ Elaine, You and Preston have been such a blessing to so many people for many years. There was never any doubt in anyone’s mind about your Christian Influence. Preston’s Life will always be an encouragement to everyone. And I know that our Lord is rejoicing with his presence in heaven today. Yes, I know that you will miss him terribly, but I am praying that the Lord will comfort and strengthen you as you continue the Christian influence that you and Preston have shared over the years. Just know that you, Annette, Everett and all your family are in my thoughts and prayers and will continue to be.
