

Faith A. Hanley

January 2, 1955 - February 22, 2020

Mrs. Faith A. Hanley of Fayetteville passed away February 22, 2020. Faith was a creative and artistic person, pursuing her hobbies that included cross stitch, knitting, painting, drawing, and sewing. She was a well traveled expert taking several trips a year with her husband Walter visiting places as far as Japan, Europe, and even Antarctica. Her eyes had seen every continent on earth! It was during these adventures that she found joy in trying even more artistic pursuits including glass blowing, calligraphy, and playing instruments like the guitar and ukulele. Faith never shied away from trying anything at least once, believing that one is never too old to learn new things that may give you happiness.

An avid animal and garden lover, she decorated their home with plants, bird feeders and wind chimes spending her quiet days at home content with their beloved miniature schnauzers, Missy and Molly. She passed on her gifts of creativity, sense of humor, and animal compassion to her three children who all exude their own form of artistic expression and personality.

Faith leaves behind a legacy of spreading smiles and laughter with her friendly and loving demeanor, knowing how important it was to choose kindness and peace over cruelty.

She is survived by her husband Walter Robert Hanley of Fayetteville; children, Lyconis Wolf of Macon, GA; David Balls of Calhoun, KY; Salena Balls of Senoia; sisters, Judie, Losha, Alissa, Jillena; brothers, William, Jr.; Matthew; Joseph; James; Jonathan; Larry and Charlie.

“ My Beautiful Sister
Unknown Author

*The moment I realized, my sister just died.
My hands cradled my face,
and I frantically cried.*

*Why did this happen,
and how could this be.
She had so much to live for,
we could all clearly see.*

*My heart simply dropped,
and felt a sharp pain.
My tears fell instantly,
Like a severe August rain.*

*I was truly lucky,
to have a sister like her.
Countless others,
nod and concur.*

*I will miss our talks,
and her comforting voice.
And those random moments,
where we'd mutually rejoice.*

*Rest in peace,
my Beautiful Sister Faith,
My deepest love,
to the sky I shall send.*

*I will miss you everyday for the rest of my life. I am so thankful to have had you in my life.
I will see again one day. Rest in peace my beautiful sister.*

I love you Faith!
