“ I will miss talking with her. It's good to know she is with her beloved husband. I know it has been very lonely. I know by my own experience with widowhood. It is not easy after being with someone for decades to be without them. I regret that I wasn't able to come see her recently. Bob & I loved fellowshiping with Faith & Hewlette. They became like my parents after they both passed. some of my fondest memories is when I used to spend the night with ya'll when ya'll lived in East Point. I loved your clawfoot tub. Lovely memories of a lovely women, I admired so much. God bless you & your family.
