

Faye Brock Phipps

August 2, 1930 - May 14, 2024

On May 14th, 2024, heaven gained an angel. Faye Lucretia Brock was born to Ruth Perry Brock and Charles Gladstone Brock on August 2nd, 1930 in East Point, Georgia. She is preceded in death by her parents, Ruth and Charles; her brother, Charles Gladstone Brock Jr.; and her sister, Mary Louise Edison. Faye was immersed in the Christian community that would be her lifelong support from an early age. She was the oldest active member of the Rico United Methodist Church in Chattahoochee Hills, GA, where she served as secretary, organist, Vacation Bible School teacher, and everyone's favorite person. Faye lived in Chattahoochee Hills for over sixty years.

Faye graduated from the University of Georgia, as did her brother and sister. Faye was the manager of the tax department of Southern Bell, Bellsouth, and AT&T until she retired. Faye was an adventurous woman, a member of the Appalachian Trail Club, The Wild Edibles Group of Atlanta, and a worldwide traveler and hiker. An avid reader her entire life, she also had lovely flair for writing poetry.

Faye spent her last few months being lovingly cared for by her granddaughter Tonya Phipps Gann (husband Todd) in Charlotte, NC, where she passed away peacefully at Levine Dickson Hospice House in Huntersville, NC.

Faye is survived by her two sons, Thomas Michael Phipps and Joel Christopher Phipps (Vickie); as well as her grandchildren, Tonya Phipps Gann (Todd), Amy Phipps Jarrett (Keith), Gene Patterson, April Richardson, Kelly Fincher (Steve), and Laura Wilkerson; and 12 great-grandchildren and 10 great-great-grandchildren.

An inurnment service will be held Saturday, June 15th at 12pm EST at the Providence Baptist Church Cemetery (6402 Campbellton Redwine Rd. Palmetto, GA 30268).

In lieu of flowers those desiring may make donations to Rico United Methodist Church, 6475 Rico Road Palmetto, GA 30268.

“ To Faye's sons Tommy and Joey, Granddaughters Amy, and Tonya, I was so saddened to her of your Mother and Grandma's passing. I have so many wonderful memories with Faye and the family. So many wonderful times and the sad times during the years. Faye (grandma) was a special person. I know she will be missed.
