“ When my children were little, my husband was suddenly and seriously ill with a brain aneurysm. In the absence of family to help me, Faye took care of my children for weeks--feeding them, taking them to school, and just loving them while I was away. My children still talk of the time they spent at Miss Faye's house with Faye, Deborah, and Mr. Bruce with so many funny stories. Faye knew that the kids needed to be happy and not worry about their Mom and Dad. Faye was a blessing and sweet friend at just the right time in our lives. Our tears are precious drops of love for Faye, and we will see her again.

“ Back in the mid-1980's my husband Charles and I, along with Faye, Bruce and Rob planned a weeklong vacation at Jekyll Island, Georgia. We had a new mid-size Buick with a small trunk. We had luggage for 5 and 2 sets of golf clubs, an ice chest and It was Rob's 11th birthday so also birthday gifts. Luckily, Bruce was gifted at packing luggage. Back then motels didn't provide coffee makers so Faye naturally wanted to bring hers but Bruce had already packed the trunk and informed her there was no room for the coffee maker. Faye told Bruce that she would not hold it in her lap for the trip and if he couldn't fit in the trunk she would rather stay home! Guess what? Bruce, being the loving husband, unpacked everything from the trunk, repacked again, creating just enough space to squeeze in Faye's beloved coffee maker! We had a wonderful trip with our special friends, as always. This memory is priceless to me.

Bruce, Deb and Rob, I love you all so very much. My thoughts and prayers are with you. My heart aches for all Faye's family and friends who love her so much. She was such a dear, caring and loving person who was unselfish and did so much for so many. May The Lord bless us with our precious memories of Faye that will keep her close in our hearts.
