“ My thoughts and sympathies are with you at this trying time! It is never easy to lose a loved one. Even "Jesus gave way to tears" at the death of his friend Lazarus. (John 11:35) However, Jesus also gave us hope for the future: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29a) Isn't that a marvelous prospect, the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again? "God, who cannot lie" promises it! (Titus 1:2) Until that time, may the "Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" bring you peace. (2 Corinthians 1:3)

“ Marian, Jean, and Mike; it was so nice to see you and talk with you at visitation Wednesday evening although the gathering was with everyone sad and heavy hearts abounded. It is times like these that family and friends are so important, and you are blessed with both. Just know that there are many that are thinking of you and praying for peace within your heart. Your mother is in a much better place and you will see her again.

Love you all, we are so sorry to hear about your loss! Please accept our heartfelt condolences. May Jehovah the God of all comfort bring you comfort at this difficult time. We know the pain is great now, but as we rely and on seeing our loved ones restored to life. You are in our “ Death certainly is our "enemy" (1 Corinthians 15:26) Yet God Jehovah has the power and desire to end all sorrow. He has given his Son Jesus the power to resurrect all our loved ones. (John 5:28,29) What a glorious day awaits us. Our prayers are with you all.
