“ Oh me...where do I start. More memories with this lovely lady than this site can hold. She always had another spare pillow or blanket tucked away somewhere if her kids dragged in yet one more overnight guest. If there was a limit on how much each could have I never fell into that category. I think she just considered all of us HER kids. If you ended up being the Saturday night guest then you better have those church clothes because off we would go to the Methodist Church. For me that was sorta a treat to hear a little different take on church since I was Baptist. I always loved any time I was with that family. All of them!!!! She had the heart of angel and the patience of Jesus on the mountainside. I dont know how she did it but for sure she made it look just as easy as childs play. Oh to be 1/2 the woman she was would be a blessing and luckily she passed that trait right along to her kids....all of them are just as kind as she is. LOVE YOU ALL.

“ When I was a kid I spent a whole lot of my time hanging around the Johnsons house with Lee, Tommy, Robbie, Clifford, Beth and Ruth. Some of the best memories I have were with you guys and girls! And your mom was just like my own mom while Mike and I was down there! She was as nice a person as they come. Mrs. Flo could whip up a mean peanut butter sandwich too! Love all of you guys and my thought and prayers are with all of you! Mrs. Florence will be waiting with my mom and we will see them again one great day! GOD BLESS all of Yall!!!
