“ My dear sweet aunt I will miss you more than you know. I might not have seen as a often I should be you were always in my heart. I was sure hurt by the news of your passing. But as I have been told God needed you home. I am sure that Granny and Granddad and my daddy and of course Kenny are all there waiting on you. With all my love, Connie.

“ Having known this precious lady for most of my 67 years, I have to admit I'm already dreading not seeing her at church services anymore. My sense of loss is nothing, however, to that of you dear family members who surely remember her as a rock! She was the hub of the wheel in your family, true? That is what I thought of Donald's grandmother, "Mama Granger." Later, Donald's mother, Mary, leaves the same void in the family. This story of life on earth keeps on happening, and we who remain pick up the story and travel on. I know it's hard. Prayers and HUGS for all Loved Ones. The photo above is exquisite! It seems she's saying, "Hello, Jesus!" Awesome!
