“ You can shed tears that she is gone....Or you can smile because she has lived.....You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back...Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.... Your heart can be empty because you can't see her.....Or you can be full of the love that you shared... You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday....Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.....You can remember her and only that she is gone....Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on... You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back.....Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Mamabuff was a strong woman. She made sure she educated others, gave them the best advice, shared many stories for the younger generation to learn from and gave the best love and affection. I have missed her sitting in her rocking chair cutting cheese or cutting the skin off of apples while we played on her screened in porch when she lived on spring street in Palmetto. I truly miss that house. Lots of memories. You can say she was mean or didn't love you but...mamabuff had her own way of showing love. You just had to know her. I'm going to miss this woman. She seriously taught me many things over the years. There was one thing I noticed early this morning, mamabuff is being buried today. Today's date is 0911/2023. A date that will never be forgotten in so many ways. I love and miss you Mamabuff! Forever <3

Dear Thelma Gene, and Richard, I just learned about Mama Buff's passing, I'm so, so, sorry, I'm glad I got to talk to her. Monday to wish her a Happy Birthday she was so sweet, I know she will be missed by everyone who knew her, especially me, for she has known me since I was a baby, I loved her so dearly, she was always so good to my grandparents, baking cakes, and pies, for them, they loved her dearly also, She was a very sweet person, She is not suffering anymore, for She is in the arms of Our Sweet Jesus, and with Brewster, you know she is happy, My thoughts and prayers are with each and everyone of you, may God give you all the strength to carry on, and bless you all, I love you all, Debbie Couch

“ Sweet, Sweet, Miss Buff. Can just see she and Mr. Brewster sitting on their porch. Big Daddy (Richard Jenkins) and Mama Lou (Emma Lou Handley Jenkins) loved them so much as many others did. Loving memories growing up next to Wanda and Connie.

When Frank would call to talk with Aunt Buff she would always say "Hello Sheila", then Frank would say "Aunt Buff it's me Frankie". Periodically she would remind him that she brought him into this world and was the first person to see him. We loved her dearly and were so fortunate to have been with her in March this year. She was a dear and will always be remembered.

Mama Buff was one of a kind. She was a human computer! She could remember dates of any event you mentioned. I loved hearing her stories! She kept half of the grownups in Palmetto at one time or another when they were babies or until they grew up. So the term "mama Buff" was perfect for her. She will be missed! Love to all her family!

Moma Buff was one of the sweetest people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I remember going to her house with Wanda on Sunday afternoons. She would invite me to lunch, and boy, she was one of the best cooks I have ever known. She had a sweet loving spirit and she will be missed. My condolences to Thelma Gene, Mr. Richard, Wanda and Connie. Your lives may be changed forever but the memories you have will be with you always. Love and prayers.
