

Francis (Frank) Hasselberger

August 14, 1945 - December 7, 2016

Mr. Francis "Frank" Hasselberger, age 71, of Sharpsburg, passed away Wednesday, December 7, 2016. He was born August 14, 1945 to Eva Speer Hasselberger. A funny, gentle man who did everything for his family. He was extremely caring and selfless. Frank was born in Brooklyn, NY and grew up in Glendale, NY, Queens, on the same block as his lifelong love Dolores. He married his childhood sweetheart Dolores 2 months after his return from his military duty in Vietnam on November 18, 1967. They moved to Middle Village, NY where they raised their 4 children. Frank was a dedicated husband, father and pop. He retired from UPS in NY after 27 years of service. He was a hard worker who focused solely on family. His grandchildren are his everything. Pop always attended dance lessons, concerts, school activities, Girl Scouts, it was endless. Frank took his family on trips several times a year. He was our leader, our hero. Our hearts are forever broken. He was preceded in death by his son, Gregory Murray (Hasselberger) (2005). Frank is survived by his loving wife of 49 years, Dolores Hasselberger (Wassmer); his 3 children and spouses, Kim and John Muncan of Middle Village, NY, Tina and Byron Smith of Tyrone, GA, Frank and Teri Hasselberger of Farmingdale, NY; 6 grandchildren, Jonel Muncan, Alex, Hanna and Maylee Smith and Paige and Ryland Hasselberger. 3 great grandchildren, Delaney, Charleigh and Scarlett. “ Delores, Tina, Hanna, Maylee and family - Just found out today about Frank. Shocked to hear about his passing. I always looked forward to talking to him at dance practice, parties and shows; especially the Cotton Pickin Fair. He loved his family, was always so friendly and just fun to be around and was just a great friend that I always looked forward to seeing. Anytime we saw each other there was always laughter and talk about the family. He generally had something to say about New York and how cold it was there or the South and its heat. I am certainly glad our paths crossed.

“ Tina, Byron and family - while I did not know this man who was nothing less than amazing based on all the incredible memories shared. It seemed he lived with great joy for all of you - placing his priorities squarely with family - specifically the smallest among you. Throughout his life, he suffered the loss of a son - and that is hard to imagine for any parent. My parents lost a son also - and I a brother and best friend. Yet, your father continued to let the sun shine in his life and seemed to march on with great hopes and dreams of more joy and great times of laughter. He stood out for you all as a giant among men and so rightly so as the sweet memories spoken on FB and this tribute page allows even a stranger to know that Frank Hasselberger was a champion husband, daddy, grandpa, father-in-law and more.

I trust that when you seek his face he will come to you in your dreams - reminding you to allow life to go on and to sprinkle his magic for all to see and hear for the rest of your lives!

May God welcome him into his kingdom for a better view as you all celebrate his life now and forever.

“ Aunt Dolores, Kim, Tina and Frank....so many terrific memories with your family who took me in as one of your own. Your Dad was always fun and had so many interesting stories. I remember the dune buggy trips, the pool, the Christmas trees, all the trips to western beef, white castle runs, the Lincoln Continental, how he loved his tea, how he loved all of you, going to the flea market at aqueduct and having a blast, snowball fights, playing with Kevin next door, playing with Frank's Lego toys, the original Nintendo, your huge television in middle village and the gigantic satellite dish for cable...the hot tub, the quads, when Frankie ripped his finger on the trike, the bmx bike ramp we all fell on, all the metallica, the waterbed, how cool I thought the three of you guys were because you all made me feel special, all of the snacks we had, the way aunt Dolores used to wash me up before my mom came to pick me up and how even when I wasn't a model citizen so to speak how you guys still treated me like family. HUGE THANK YOU TO YOUR FAMILY FOR ALWAYS TREATING ME LIKE A BROTHER AND SON. Many of my best childhood memories are from our time together. Terribly sad news about your dad. I looked up to him as a youngster and even when he would be working tons of hours and be exhausted from work he always found time to sit down and talk to me. Heaven gains an angel and we wait for the day to see him again. I love you guys. I know it's been a while but I would enjoy seeing and talking to you. My phone number is 347-246-0903. Sincerely, Charles
