“ Frank and I spent a bit of time on the road playing music with a group named the The Englishment Ltd. , Had seen him play with a group out of Savannah called The Sphinx. It was the late sixties and music was breaking big in Atlanta as elsewhere. Did quite a lot of traveling and has some fun times. We remained friends and had contact over the years. I respected him as he did me, will miss him and my condolences to his family.

Such a blessing to call Frank my friend, my brother in Christ. Heaven just needed a first class drummer, the best I ever heard. Love him and his family so much. See you later my friend. RD
