“ I have many, many memories with him. It makes me sick to think about him being gone. We ran in the woods, played in the creek. Chased the neighbors pig every day. Stealing their baby chicks. Fishing in the creek with mama and Lucille. Picking plums and blackberries on English Rd. We are the first and second grand child. So when I was a year old I met my first cousin. My first friend. I am truly broken hearted. The only person I have ever let call me Bonita. I thank God for the memories.. I don't have words to express how I feel. I love you Freddy. I believe the Lord needed you. I think he took just the way you would have wanted. I will forever have a whole in my heart. So sorry for not being there. I know you would understand forgive me..

Because our family's had just reconnected a few years ago. I didn't have a lot of interaction with Fred. But I can tell you He never acted like it was a short term. It was like we had known each other our whole lives. The last time I saw Fred we were setting on his front porch having a cup of coffee. He will be missed by so many. He was a Husband/Father/and friend. God bless Him and his family during this trying time.
