“ I believe Gail may have been my childhood best friend. I went to Meadows elementary school and had a great friend named Gail Conway. She and I also lived very close to each other. I remember going to her house and believe she had a little sister. I lost touch with her when I moved to Alabama at the first of 7TH grade. I regained touch with her and went to Fairburn Ga to visit in my early 20's, or a bit before, not sure of the year. I was also born in 1964. I remember Gail had the prettiest hair, kinda like a Dorothy Hamill cut, and I feel like I remember Gail had a little dimple on her chin and freckles when we played outside in the summer. I called this funeral home yesterday and the person could not tell me a lot, but what I did share, she thought this may be my old friend Gail. My name is Michelle and my last name was Mason. I loved Gail and will always remember how we shared so much time when we were kids. I regret having lost touch with her. I was looking for her, and came across this just yesterday. I am sorry she is gone. She was the best!

“ I didnt know my high school friend, Gail, had pass. She and I were on majorette squad our senior year at Campbell. My favorite photo of Gail is in our high school year book. It was senior night and the band was exiting the field, someone was taking a photo of she and I and said, "Gail! Smile!" Beautiful girl. I pray for the Conway-Higgins family to always be in His loving care. Sincerely, Percitia

“ Many years ago when Gail worked for Delta we shared a wonderful day together in New Orleans. It was her first time to fly and she asked me to go with her. One Saturday we flew to New Orleans for the day. And what a day we had, we covered the French Quarter from one end to the other, beignets at Cafe Du Monde, lunch at a quaint Cajun outdoor restaurant, a "Hurricane cocktail" in the afternoon, a tour of Saint Louis Cathedral, and shopping at River Walk. A great memory of Gail.
