“ I cannot begin to share all the times this sweet man has been a treasure in my life. I loved both him and his sweet bride. They were hand in hand every day until she went ahead of him to get those heavenly pastures ready for them to run in. I imagine they are doing just that now! He always had a little something to teach anyone willing to listen about cows, farming or just anything you asked him. He seemed to know just about everything but sure was not one to boast or brag that he did. A true Christian good man that saw the good in everyone. I bet he never said a single curse word in his life! I doubt he even silently thought one. If you ever would want to follow by example this would sure be the one you would hope had mentored you somewhere along the way. I at least had a few lessons though I will be first to admit I fall very short in comparison. Much love and prayers for you all as you say goodbye to your hero Dad, granddad, great graddad, Father in law and all us lucky neighbors and friends. You left your mark Mr. GEORGE. THANK YOU FOR YOUR LIFE
