“ I am very sorry for your loss. When you have been married for 61 years you have so many memories to treasure up in your heart. The pain you must be feeling is compare to having a long sword run through you [Luke 2 : 35] There is no tragedy so great that our heavenly Father cannot comfort and strengthen us. With the love and support of others your grief will soften. The Bible gives us a wonderful hope! Jesus assures us "the hour is coming which all those in the graves will come out" [John 5 : 28-29]
This will not completely take away your grief, but I hope you can find real hope and strength to keep going. If you would welcome more about how to cope with grief or why does God allow suffering?

“ George,

You will be missed and not forgotten.

I was so blessed that God not only allowed you to be in my life as a mentor but God allowed us to be friends and you open your life and allowed me to be part of your family.

You not only helped me with the Scouting program and advised but you were my partner at the McDonough Police Department. You mentored in many things and the things you may not have covered you sent to me through your son Barry. God knew for me to make it through some of the things I've been through it would take double dose of Yarian to make it happen.

To mom thank you for sharing George and your family with me. God knew since my family was so far away that he sent you guys to fill that hole in my life and I LOVE YOU all for that.

George I know your with Barry and you guys were called ahead help prepare a place for the family.

Until that day come when God calls us home to be with you all. I pray that God allows you to continue to help keep us safe as you always have.

God Bless and see you again one day.

I am equally sorry I will not be able to be there but I will be there in my heart.
