“ Georgia was such an amazingly smart lady she made you stand in awe as you really listened to her! She had been around for many years and she had learned a lot during that time. She was funny, too. She had a quick wit. that could make me laugh. She and I enjoyed talking about old East Point things that I could remember since I was born and raised there. I sure did love that spunky Christian lady, and happy she is with her Savior now!
