“ Memories of Stonewall Tell Road and growing up amongst this family will forever be in my heart. I will always remember my mom, Gail Lackey Sullivan, and my aunt, Debra Lackey Griggs, talking about daddy Gerald and mama Gayle. We would always run down between the houses to come see everyone. I miss those days, and love the memories from them. I pray that God places extra Angels around all of his family and friends as they continue on through the days, weeks, months, and years to come. Never forget the happy times you all shared with him. Remember how much he loved each of you and hold that memory tight. May he live forever in your hearts until you meet again.
