“ Gina and I first worked together remotely while she was supporting the Teammates in Atlanta. Our weekly conference calls were always great because of Gina’s bubbly, open and kind personality. She always had a good story to share about what was going on in her life. She and Jeff building a new home a few years ago gave us much to talk about. While we did manage to talk about business, the time always flew by. On top of that, she was good at her job, and especially good at taking care of the teammates she supported. When there was a project, she would always jump in and do more than was asked of her. I know I am one of many at FlightSafety who miss Gina!

“ I've known Gina for years - we both were on the HR team with FlightSafety International and more recently in Recruiting. I first met her in person several years ago at a training event in Teterboro and my strongest memory of that meeting was my astonishment at the size of the suitcase she used for the trip - it was enormous! Just like her heart and her spirit and kindness. Gina brought joy into my life in many little ways - her infectious giggle, her wit and wisdom...and I'll always hear her voice in that beautiful Southern accent, "Why bless his heart!"

Gina will be missed by all of us at FlightSafety. Her will and determination to fight until the very end will never be forgotten. Our hearts are with her family, I hope you all find comfort in knowing that Gina touched so many lives.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Gina throughout the years at FlightSafety. Though we worked at different centers, I always enjoyed talking with her. I also had the privilege of being on a long project with Gina, where she brought her usual positive, funny and very kind self! Gina was a staple in our HR group and I know that many will miss her!

“ I met Gina several years ago when we were both on the same HR team at FlightSafety International. She handled all the HR duties for Atlanta while I held the same position in Wichita, Kansas. We've continued to cross paths in our careers at FlightSafety over the years and I've always enjoyed working with her. You could always count on Gina to be in a great mood and bring such a positive, bubbly, and kind spirit to our team. I LOVED her laugh!! It was infectious and always made me smile. Gina will be dearly missed by all her teammates at FlightSafety and my thoughts and prayers are with all her family and friends during this difficult time.

“ Gina was warm, bubbly, upbeat, funny, sweet as sugar, methodical in her actions, and wore her strong faith in Jesus unapologetically and proud. She loved her family, she loved being with people and always smiled so big she lit up a room. She was a dear friend- we love her and all of the beautiful gifts she shared with us over the last many years. To say she will be missed is an understatement- I know one day in Christ we will be in shared company again. Until that day Jeff- we are just a phone call away- and will remain strong and faithful together.
