“ She taught how to line dance at the Bowden Center in East Point. I didn't know the first steps, but she was patient. With her coaching and support I was able to move from beginners into the advance class. She will definitely be missed. God Bless her family during this time of mourning.

“ Claire, we love you and grieve with you on the tragic loss of your Mother. She was a lovely, Christian lady whose joy was helping others. May the sweetest memories you shared bring you a measure of comfort. We are so sorry that continuing health issues prevent us from being with you. We love you and Derek and pray for your healing. May God bless you and be with you every hour. Much love, The Jacksons
