“ Grandma, you were a loving, strong, caring soul who lived a full life. I will always remember the root beer floats you used to make us at the lake--I have yet to find one as good as yours. We'll remember the good times and know you are in a better place. You will be missed. Love, Jenn

“ Last time I talked to Grandma, around the 14th, she told me she was ready to go home. Well she is now back with grandpa, no more pain or issues. I wish I was able to get back for the funeral, but I am sure you all understand that considering the situation I will not be able to get out of Iraq. Please give my love to all for I will see you when I get home. Love Randy.
