“ I'm definitely going to miss Granny. I loved getting to know her over the past three years and sharing so many talks and memories with her. My greatest memory with her will be coming home with Victoria and her holding her and remembering how she lit up with such love and warmth for her. And that's what I remember Gloria for. Is her love, her kindness, and definitely her quick witted humor. She and I shared so many laughs. I loved her. And my daughter will know what a beautiful and wonderful great grandmother she had. I'll always be thankful for her having me be a part of the family and accepting me. I'm truly honored to have known her.
