“ I just heard. A week too late to attend the funeral.

Earl was everything the Lord wants us all to be. He was. Every day.....

I'm sure he heard "Well done my good and faithful servant."

I wish I could talk to him one more time here. But I will talk with him again.

“ My prayers and love go out to the Kimsey family for your loss, But as Gran would say "to live is Christ and to die is gain". Gran is assuredly at rest in Christ Hallelujah and amen. He has lead our side of the family and friends to Jesus and always has been an ear for me when I had questions on my relationship with Jesus. All I could see was Christ in him and I feel others that knew him or even just met him once would say the same. Gran has many crowns to bring to the Father from all of the fruit that his life here on earth has produced, and the seeds he has sown in the hearts of loved ones and friends will keep producing from all his labors. I know for a fact that Jesus will say "well done my good and faithful servant" when He sees him. I mourn his death but rejoice in knowing we will see him again in heaven waiting with Jesus to embrace us as well. Glory be to God Almighty for Gran and his life here on earth. We love you Gran, and can't wait to rejoin with you again. With all love and thanksgiving,

“ Other than my own Daddy, I've never know greater man than Earl Kimsey!! When I was in my early 20's I stayed at his and Dixie's house most of the time. I was a little wild back then but He put up with me. Before each meal, Earl would read a passage of scripture before saying the blessing. Later on in my life, God called me of all people to preach. After a couple of years, I started a new Church, and Earl was my first member. I was 15 when I first met Earl , and He was a spiritual father to me until the day God called him home. Earl I've always loved you dearly , and I'll see you after while!!

“ In the process of looking for a senior care home, my sister and I decided to visit Benton House. Before meeting anyone for information or a tour, we were greeted outside by Earl. He was the best salesperson for Benton House, sharing with us that he was living his best life! There is a reason why he proudly wore a Benton House Ambassador name badge! We did select Benton House, and to be honest, Earl was a big part of the decision. Over the past year, he has shown both of us and our mother great kindness and friendship. We never crossed Earl's path without him asking about our mother and telling us he loved us. While names of Benton House friends are now challenging for our mother to remember, the one name she has always remembered is Earl's name! He was a dear man and all three of us will miss him dearly. Our condolences go out to his family. Love: Bobbi, Christy, and Betty

“ I am flooded with many memories of Earl. When he attended Fairburn United Methodist Church he was like family. Not only was Earl a good Christian man but he had a keen sense of humor that would guarantee a smile on the face of everyone he met.

One of my fondest memories of Earl was of one Sunday when the preacher recognized Buster Brantly's 65th birthday during the announcements. Buster was a mentally challenged man who could be seen hanging around town in stores and at our church.

Suddenly a voice from the choir was loud and clear, "If Buster is retiring, I want to take his job". Yep, it was Earl who could always add more fun to any situation. No one will ever take Earl's place and he will be sorely missed.

“ Mr. Earl was my second Father. His son, Joe, was my finance for over twelve years and I never got the chance to make it official before Joe passed away, but I always felt like he was certainly a Father figure to me. He always called to tell me how much he loved me and how much Joe had loved me. It was very special and I will miss those phone calls. It always gave me peace knowing that Mr. Earl was praying for me. Go rest high on that mountain!!!!

“ Jami shared her daddy with me. I called him DadE. He loved me and called me his other daughter. He was the only man who was a member of our ladies Bible class, LACE. For years I have seen DadE share his joy and his smile with so many. I am so thankful for his godly example. I know he prayed for me and my family everyday. It was a great comfort knowing him.

“ When I told my daughter about Earl's passing, she said, "Oh no, Uncle Earl died?" Earl was a treasured member of our church family, and no, he wasn't my kids' uncle, but he was well loved by all. I am rejoicing that he is with Jesus, Dixie, and other loved ones, but we will all miss his smiling face, his love, and his prayers. He always told me about how he was praying for my family.

“ Our condolences to his family during this time of loss. Earl was a special friend, and we will miss him and his sweet disposition on this side of Glory. He loved to deck himself in his beloved Tennessee colors and share his faith through his hats/caps. His desire was for everyone to know Jesus.
