

Hazel Stroud Bolin

September 28, 1926 - May 24, 2026

Hazel Stroud Bolin of Tyrone, Georgia, devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend, passed away on May 24, 2026 at her residence. She was born in Lyman, South Carolina on September 28, 1926.

Hazel was preceded in death by her husband of sixty-three years, Brunson W. (Bunny) Bolin, her grandson, Timothy, her daughter-in-law, Sandy Wilson Bolin, her brother, Dan Stroud and wife Myra, and her parents, Ruth Jones Stroud and Luther Tillman Stroud.

She is survived by son, Anthony Bolin of Fayetteville, Georgia and wife Britton, son, Timothy Bolin of Meggett, South Carolina and wife Tina, daughter, Anne Bolin Culver, of Roswell, Georgia and husband Rick, eight grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren.

Born into humble circumstances and shaped by the hardships of the Great Depression, Hazel made family her highest priority and spent a lifetime giving herself—always kindly, generously, and without fanfare—to the people she loved.

Hardworking and selfless, Hazel found dignity in work and comfort in caring for others. She was forever putting other people before herself: running the household, cooking, caring for her children, and lending a steady hand whenever it was needed. Her generosity extended beyond material help; she offered time, attention, and a compassionate ear to family and friends alike. Hazel possessed a sweet and gentle nature that will be forever remembered.

The relatives and friends of Hazel Bolin are invited to attend her committal service on Thursday, June 11, 2026 at 11:30 am at the Georgia National Cemetery, 1080 Scott Hudgens Drive, Canton, Georgia 30114

The family requests that donations be made to the not-for-profit Children's Healthcare of Atlanta; Children's Foundation, 1687 Tullie Circle NE, Atlanta, GA, 30329

<https://giving.choa.org/donatenow>

Tribute Wall

BL

“ Hazel was such a sweet soul,I remember when I was a little girl going to Aunt Ruth's.Hazel would have vegetable soup I remember it being so good,And she would bring me hand me downs from Ann's clothes an what not.I always loved getting them.She was an is,always remembered.With love and healing,sending hugs an prayers to the family. Betty Loredo. (Marjorie Jones) grand daughter.

Betty Loredo - June 09 at 08:05 AM