“ Dear, Pat & Brenda,

So sorry to learn of you mom's passing, She was always a joy to talk with. I recall when I work at Alford in Palmetto with her, we would swap jokes back & forth. Then when she lived in Peachtree city, I saw her and had a great conversation with her again.

I know she will be surely missed, may you draw comfort form your Happy Memories. God Bless the entire family.

With Love, Doug Jones

“ To the Ray family:

I'm very sorry for your loss. Losing our loved ones is distressing because we naturally want to keep living happily with our family and friends. (Ecclesiastes 3:11) It's comforting to know that God cares about us and knows what it's like to lose a loved one. (1 Peter 5:7) Thankfully, God has promised to change conditions on earth and in humans so that very soon we will be able to enjoy life forever, without ever again having to experience sickness, pain, sadness, or death. (Romans 5:21; Revelation 21:3, 4) He has also provided a sure hope that we'll be able to see our loved ones alive and well again. (John 5:28, 29)

May you have comfort and peace during this difficult time.
