“ I was so sorry to hear of the death of your mother! I got to know her and work with her at Peachtree City Elementary School. She was a warm, caring, gracious lady. I know she will be missed.

“ Praying for all of you. I remember listening to Mr. Brown talk about those "grand babies," and Mrs. Brown beaming. She was SUCH a supporter of his for so many years. I had the pleasure of working for LandShares and getting to know the family as they sort of "built Tyrone" during the 80s and 90s. My love of real estate was evident, even then! So many fun stories and memories. May God bless you all.

“ I enjoyed knowing Helen and Alton. They were both great people and I know you will miss Helen now as much as you miss Alton. I loved her dry humor. God bless you all at this sad time.

“ After the clouds, the sunshine; after the winter, the spring; after the shower, the rainbow; for life is a changeable thing. After the night, the morning, bidding all darkness cease, after life's cares and sorrows, the comfort and sweetness of peace. - Helen Steiner Rice

Wishing everyone comfort and support at this time of sorrow. Our memories of Mimi will keep her alive in our hearts until our time to reunite and join her in eternal life. We love you Mimi!! I'm the goodest one

“ To our friends Mike and Holly,

We are sad with you and are here for you. While we hadn't known Mrs. Brown personally, it was through you that we felt her great character, presence, and significance. We love you always,
