“ Pat is an amazing woman of God,, she loved God and taught us His Word . She was more more than our leader , she was our mentor ,our friend our sister - n- Christ she was more than words could explain. I will never e the same because of her walk with the Lord and with me and everyone in her life .She was a authentic disciple of Jesus Christ which was an example to everyone else in her life .I will miss you my dear friend and I love you always . My heart leaps for joy knowing you are with our Lord Jesus and looking at our Father face to face .I am so happy for you because this is why we walk with Jesus to be with Him in eternity .Hallelujah you are with Him now.Praise the Lord

“ To my beautiful cousin Pat. I'll always remember the fun times we had when we were growing up. My favorite memory is the night you and Tommy got married. It was such a fun, exciting time for me. Fly high loved one, I know there is so much joy and love going on in Heaven today. We will all soon be together again.
