“ Alan was a 2nd cousin on my Mom's side of the family. His Dad, Alan Lumpkin Chancey, was my maternal grandmother, Lena Chancey McDaniel's, brother. The best memory I have of Alan Jr. Is driving to my grandparents farm in Winder, Ga. to show off his new highschool graduation present, a brand new Cadillac Convertible, Alan Jr. was so proud of that car. I remember him raising his hand high in the air as he waved goodbye. The Honorable Alan Chancey Jr. had a great life growing up, successful in college and his adult life.

He was friends with other great people in his life. He was friends with and often played a game of golf with President Dwight David, "Ike", Eisenhower. Even so he never forgot friends and family of his youth. The person I remember the most was his Mother, my great Aunt, Lois Chancey.

Aunt Lois was a loving, generous and very kind individual as was his Dad.

Aunt Lois never forgot birthdays, Christmas or other special events in the lives of my sister Linda and myself. The best gift I remember from Aunt Lois Chancey was a beautiful dollhouse complete with hand crafted miniature furniture. They were a wonderful family.
