“ I am heartbroken to hear about your parents. They were very special to me. I am a friend of theirs who works at Shannons saloon in Ellicott City. Your dad would visit for lunch a couple days a week and bring Pat if she felt up to coming. I tried to text your dad numerous times and never heard from him so I did a search and I was saddened by the news. They will be truly missed. Prayers to your family.

“ Bruce and William...sending thoughts and prayers from my family to yours. Jim and Pat (Mr. and Mrs. Howard to me) have a special place in my heart...as do you two. Heartbroken but spending some time reflecting on how you all were there for my family. Grateful for that...always have been. Thinking of you all.

“ Bruce, Jacqui, Cydney and Riley,
Our family is holding you in our hearts at this very sad time. We are so honored to have spent a little time with Jim and Pat at various family celebrations over the years. Recently, Jacqui shared with me a story of Pat feeding the girls oatmeal cookies for breakfast when they were little. I, for one, think oatmeal cookies are an absolutely fine breakfast! In fact, that is exactly what a grandmother is blessed to do. God bless your parents and bless your entire family for strength and peace.

We love you all,
Chrissy, Andrew, Riley and Elizabeth xo
