“ I loved going to Granddaddy and Mawmaw's for the summer. He would always take us out on the dirt roads and trails. Going to see alien rock and hanging out with my cousins. I will greatly miss my granddaddy and pray for my family. I love y'all!

I will never have a better neighbor. I would hear him pull in the driveway and know he had a bit of gossip, fresh veggies or just checking on me because he hadn't seen me outside. If I didn't see him out, in his denim shirt, tinkering around, I would worry. I can't count the times I went to him and told him I'd done something dumb(like run the lawn mower into the lake) and he would rescue me. The love he had for his family just shone through him. At the mere mention of his 'grands', he would grin and his eyes would sparkle and out would come a story.

The World became a little darker now that Wayne's smile and sweetness has been taken.
