“ Janice: it was a pleasure to meet you at Hoy's service. While I did not have the honor of meeting such a fascinating man, I do have the honor of working closely with your daughter, Donna. My wife and I have 4 daughters, and I believe the most important job parents ever have is how they raise their children. That you and Hoy raised such a fine woman speaks volumes. My deepest sympathy to you and your family for the loss of your loving husband of 59 years.

“ Aunt Janice - you are in our thoughts and prayers today, and everyday. As a kid, visiting with you and Uncle Hoy was always such a treat! Swimming in the hotel pool out on Green Key and cook outs at Aunt Paralee's house are just a few of my fondest memories. Sending hugs and prayers. Love - Valerie

“ I remember all the times I listened to Hoy, Guy and Mama play and sing their music. Never once did I think about recording it, but today I just wish I could listen to it one more time. Love you all.
