“ We are very sorry to hear about Ida. She was a good friend to our mother. They knew each other even before the oldest Martin child was born in 1957. Our thoughts and prayers are with you now and in the days ahead. The children of Dick and Dorris Martin.

“ Lived with Ida for several years after Mart passed away. She would be quick to tell you we never had a cross word between us. And we never did. I treasure those years and the memories we shared with each other.
